Festival Eastern European Design to festiwal projektowania wizualnego z Europy Środkowej i Wschodnio-Południowej. Celem wydarzenia jest prezentacja kultury wizualnej oraz integracja środowisk projektowych z tej części Europy.

🟡 FEED to prezentacja historii i współczesności projektowania z krajów Europy Środkowej i Wschodnio-Południowej, które często jest nieznane i niedocenione na międzynarodowej scenie designu. Festiwal ma na celu odkrycie i promocję kultury wizualnej tego regionu.

🟢 W tym roku festiwal będzie w dwóch miastach w Wilnie i Warszawie.

🔹 20, 21 i 22 listopada, o godz. 18:00 w Muzeum Sztuki Nowoczesnej w Warszawie / Museum of Modern Art in Warsaw odbędą się konferencje. W programie znajdą się prezentacje i dyskusje poświęcone historii i współczesności projektowania w Armenii, Czechach, Gruzji, Grecji, Litwie, Słowenii i Ukrainie.

🔹 20 listopada o godz. 20:00 w MSN odbędzie się pokaz odcinka dokumentu „Identita”, poświęconego historii czeskiego projektowania graficznego.

🔹 Do zobaczenia będą także 3 wystawy:

→ „Type from the East #01” [20–24 listopada, Typogram, Chmielna 10A]. Wystawa krojów pisma z Europy Centralnej i Wschodniej.

→ „And Now East” [21–30 listopada, Kawiarnia Relaks, Puławska 48]. Przegląd plakatów z Europy Centralnej i Wschodniej.

→ „Life on the Edge” [20–30 listopada, Komuna Warszawa, Emilii Plater 31]. Międzynarodowa wystawa ilustracji poświęcona Ukrainie.

Wstęp wolny. Więcej informacji na 🖱️ <https://www.feedesign.eu>

And Now East

And Now East is a poster festival spotlighting the work of graphic designers from Eastern Europe.

Serving as a manifesto for Eastern European graphic design, the exhibition in Warsaw will feature 50 curated posters from the festival's 2021 and 2023 editions.

The festival was created by the Local Design Circle Association and led by design duo Andrei Grosu and Artemisa Pascu, co-founders of the Bucharest-based studio Policromic.

Life on the Edge

Co oznacza Życie na krawędzi dla ukraińskich i międzynarodowych ilustratorów? Czy to życie na skraju wojny, globalnych zawirowań czy problemów środowiskowych?

Ciągła walka z niepewnością, gdzie granica między stabilnością a chaosem się zaciera? A może osobiste wyzwanie, które popycha nas poza strefę komfortu, zmuszając do walki z wewnętrznymi demonami i dążenia do rozwoju?

Kuratorzy:
Oleh Gryshchenko, Anna Sarvira, Olena Staranchuk

Organizatorzy: Stowarzyszenie Pictoric, The International Book Arsenal Festival, Fundacja Polish Graphic Design, Komuna Warszawa

What does Life on the Edge mean for Ukrainian and international illustrators? Is it living on the brink of war, upheaval, or environmental issues?

A constant struggle with uncertainty, where the line between stability and chaos becomes blurred? Or is it a personal challenge that pushes you beyond your comfort zone, forcing you to fight inner demons and strive for development?

Curators:
Oleh Gryshchenko, Anna Sarvira, Olena Staranchuk.

Organizers: Pictoric Association, Polish Graphic Design Foundation, The International Book Arsenal Festival, Komuna Warszawa

Ruben Malayan

→ Biography

Ruben Malayan is an award-winning art director and visual artist. His career in graphic design spans over twenty five years — crossing over into the fields of visual identity design, typography and calligraphy. For over a decade Ruben has been working on research about the art of specialized scripts, and has developed a portfolio of unique Armenian calligraphy.

Ruben Malayan is notable for his work in social activism, as a founder of the 'Armenian Genocide in Contemporary Graphic & Art Posters' project, his protest art contributions to the 2018 Armenian Velvet Revolution and Second Artsakh War.

Over the years he has taught academic drawing, graphic design and calligraphy in the United States, Canada, Italy, Russia, Poland, Romania, and Armenia. Ruben's work has been published in a number of books and magazines worldwide. He is a lecturer at American University of Armenia (Visual Communication/Graphic Design/Myth & Visual Arts).
