Dear media representatives,

Thank you for your interest in the 2026 Porsche Tennis Grand Prix. The following terms and conditions are designed to help guarantee optimal working conditions in the Porsche Arena for all media representatives.

Accreditation Terms and Conditions

A media accreditation will only be issued to full-time journalists and photographers. All freelance journalists and photographers are required to submit proof they have been commissioned to represent a bone fide media outlet. Accreditation is not transferrable. The accreditation deadline is March 31, 2026. As the number of working positions in the media center and on Center Court for photographers is limited, applications for accreditation may be rejected due to capacity reasons.

Media representatives accredited for the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix undertake:

a) not to participate in any form, direct or indirect, in gambling in connection with the course and outcome respectively of a match played at the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix.

b) not to distribute, transmit, publicize or publish continuous match data like for example scores and all related statistical data from the tournament site for commercial or gambling purposes during a match (from the beginning to the end) played at the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix.

c) not to film or take photos of on-site areas where it is not foreseen to do so – also but not only with mobile telephones.

d) not to bring children, friends, family members or other non-accredited persons to any media area at the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix.

e) to, in the interest of a smooth running of the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix, adhere to any instructions given by tournament officials.

Accredited media representatives in breach of these rules may have their accreditations withdrawn. They may also be excluded from all future Porsche Tennis Grand Prix.

By submitting this application for accreditation, I hereby declare that I agree to be added to the mailing list for news from Porsche Tennis Grand Prix. I can withdraw my consent at any time by clicking on "unsubscribe" within a received email.
