Law Clerk Hearing

Notes for 4/23 Hearing:

As mentioned in the previous note, the real area of concern here is the sale motion. Debtor filed a status report on 4/19 that says that the parties made a Third Amendment to the PSA [is it just me or are they just unilaterally making these amendments without consent of the Court and the Creditors? Like my first thought when I read this is: "who said you can do that??"]. The Amendment extends the Due Diligence period from April 18, 2026 though the earlier of the closing or May 18, 2026. Purchaser "may, but is not obligated to authorize the release of the $187,931.70 from the deposit to the senior lender on behalf of the Debtor in order to satisfy the Debtor's next interest payment obligation under the Court's stay conditioning order. Any such amount shall be credited toward the purchase price if the transaction closes [again, who said you can do that???] shall be returned or otherwise treated in accordance with the PSA and Sale Order if the transaction does not close or if a higher and better offer is received."
