

Effective February 25, 2025, NCR Atleos (the “Company”) amended its Code of Conduct to incorporate the Company's newly developed Core Values and related manager and employee expectations. Additionally, information related to the Company's policies concerning generative artificial intelligence (GenAI) and Conflicts of Interest (COI) has been updated. Other minor updates have been made throughout to enhance the presentation and reader accessibility of the material. The revised Code of Conduct is available in the “Corporate Governance” section of Atleos' corporate website at https://www.ncratleos.com/corporate-governance-docs/ncr-atleos_atleos-code-of-conduct.pdf.
