

Target Market Determination

Product	Freely Travel Insurance
What is a Target Market Determination (TMD)	We're required to have Target Market Determinations under the Corporations Act 2001. A Target Market Determination is designed to outline the target market for a product by describing: • who the product is designed for and their likely objectives, financial situation and needs • who the product is not designed for • distribution conditions for the product • reporting criteria, and • review conditions for this product.
Date from which this Target Market Determination is effective	This Target Market Determination applies for policies issued for this product with a policy effective date on or after 09 September 2026. This Target Market Determination continues until it is replaced.
Disclaimer	In this document the terms "we" and "our" refer to Zurich Australian Insurance Limited ABN 13 000 296 640, AFSL 232507. The TMD does not form part of the terms of the cover. The examples of who the product is not designed for and who may fall outside the target market are not exhaustive. If you purchase this product and it is not designed for your circumstances, you may not get: • the value from it that you expected, or • any value from the product at all. For more help in deciding if this product is right for you and for additional details on the product benefits and features please refer to the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS).

1. Who is this travel insurance product designed for, and what are the likely objectives, financial situation, and needs, of customers in this target market?

The Freely travel insurance product can provide insurance for people who travel in Australia or overseas with a choice of protections. These protections are called plans. The product includes a range of common covers subject to the travel insurance plan. The product is designed for travellers who want the flexibility to choose options to vary their cover, these options are called Trip Extras. The ability to select travel insurance plans and Trip Extras allows customers to choose cover most relevant to their needs and objectives. The ability to select the travel insurance plan and Trip Extras allows the cost and protection of the product to accommodate the financial situation of customers within certain limits. Additional criteria relevant to each travel insurance plan are set out on the following pages.

This Target Market Determination (TMD) sets out the target market for Freely Travel Insurance:

- Overseas Explorer Pro
- Overseas Explorer
- Overseas Essentials
- Domestic Explorer Pro
- Domestic Explorer
- Domestic Essentials

Overseas Explorer Pro Travel Insurance Plan

2. Who is the product designed for?

This product with an Overseas Explorer Pro Travel Insurance Plan has been designed for individuals who a) have an overseas trip, b) need to reduce some unforeseen costs associated with overseas travel, and c) want to be covered against financial loss caused by certain unforeseen incidents involving leisure travel where the loss suffered may be material if there is no cover ("customers").

These customers are willing to select an appropriate level of cover relevant to their own circumstances. These customers can pay the premium and bear the excess, or an equivalent reduction in claim payments, in the event of a covered claim. Customers may need to bear the cost of upfront payments for incurred losses before being reimbursed where we don't cover losses upfront. Circumstances where we don't make upfront payments include if we have not agreed that you are covered. Limits, exclusions and conditions apply which also affect the amount of any claim payment.

This plan has some higher limits than the Overseas Explorer Travel Insurance Plan, and more benefits and some higher limits than the Overseas Essentials Travel Insurance Plan.

Distribution of the product

3. Who is this product distributed through and are there any conditions of this distribution?

Freely is a travel insurance brand of Cover-More. This product is distributed by Cover-More or by representatives of Cover-More.

Customers can purchase this product via these channels:

- Freely, using the Freely App, website or call centre
- the websites of Cover-More's authorised representatives
- aggregator websites, where applicable. (Aggregator sites are online comparison websites where customers can compare and purchase products from multiple providers).

Only Cover-More and its representatives (including authorised representatives) are authorised to distribute this product as they understand the market this product has been designed for and have the appropriate levels of authority to distribute the product.

Cover-More and its representatives are required to take reasonable steps to ensure that the product is distributed to a customer in a way that it is likely to meet the customer's objectives, financial situation and needs. These parties must have measures to promote the relevant acceptance criteria, such as staff training and eligibility questions where appropriate, provide advice through an authorised website, advertising material or a call centre and accommodate different options and costs. This helps customers to understand the product, assess it and select the appropriate range of covers and options and makes it more likely that the product will meet their objectives, financial situation and needs.

Conditions and restrictions that may impact the distribution of this product include:

- the type of platforms used to sell the product
- compliance with underwriting criteria, and
- regulatory requirements and obligations.

Reporting

Cover-More and its distributors work together to ensure that this product is distributed in accordance with this TMD and that appropriate distribution controls are maintained.

Cover-More is required to report issues to the product issuer in the following circumstances:

	Reportable matter	When must it be reported
Complaints	The number of complaints received by Cover-More about the product in the reporting period and the nature of the complaints.	Every 3 months
Significant dealings identified	If there have been any significant dealings by Cover-More that are inconsistent with our target market.	As soon as practicable after becoming aware of the matter, and within 10 business days
Claims data	If there have been any significant claims denials where the traveller fell outside our product target market in circumstances where Cover-More provided claims handling and settling services.	Every 3 months + 10 business days
