Location Flexible

Designed for Teams

TIME CRIMES

Challenge your team with a series of mind-bending puzzles in a race against the clock to decrypt the lost luggage of a dangerous time traveller.

Colleagues may reveal their true nature, unexpected heroes may rise to the occasion and everyday hierarchies are disrupted as nobody is an expert in this mission.

12-100 players

Max 25 players per game, max 4 games simultaneously

75-90 minutes

You can opt for the 75 minutes version

Designed for teams

Developed with psychologists. Specialised feedback sessions available upon request

Can be set up anywhere

In Amsterdam, as well as hosted at your location

Starting from €975*

*per game, excl. VAT and surcharges

Designed for Team Building

The game requires players to take action and become fully engaged to succeed. They have to divide strengths, share information, support each other, make decisions and keep an overview.

Being immersed in such a situation reveals a lot about our work and communication style. It can help us to question everyday habits and to see ourselves and our colleagues from a different perspective.

Reflection

(Available Upon Request)

On request, we offer the game with a guided reflection, to not miss the learnings in the excitement of the moment.

The game has been used for training, assessment or teambuilding. Facilitators will be curious about your goals for the event and can adjust the reflection accordingly. Price upon request.

Additional Information

Booking:

Please note that bookings must be made at least nine days in advance to allow time for necessary preparations on our end.

Daytime & Simultaneous Game Surcharges

If you wish to book Time Crimes during working hours (before 17:00), a daytime surcharge of €200 will be applied due to the additional organization required. For every simultaneous game, an additional €200 applies, so for four simultaneous games, the simultaneous surcharge is €600.

Arrival Time:

Please plan to arrive no earlier than 15 minutes before your game starts, as we don't have a waiting area at our office.

Cancellation Policy

- Cancellation or postponement up to 14 days before the event: 100% refund
- Cancellation or postponement up to 7 days before the event: 50% refund
- Cancellation or postponement within 5 days before the event: 25% refund
- Cancellation or postponement within 2 days before the event: no refund

If there are fewer participants on the date than planned, the cost for the event remains the same. This also applies if multiple games are booked in parallel, and fewer games end up being used. This includes all reasons for cancellation, so it's advisable to invite enough people to accommodate potential last-minute absences.

Non-refundable arrangements, like equipment rentals or special-request purchases, will still be charged in case of cancellation.

Invoices are sent upon confirmation and must be paid within 14 days or 48 hours before the event date.

Off-Site Game Option

Time Crimes can be hosted at a different location within the greater Amsterdam region. There is a €400 off-site surcharge for transporting equipment and the team. Please note, drinks and snacks are not included for off-site games, so you'll need to arrange those yourself.

If you're considering an off-site game, let us know the location, as there are certain requirements we need to verify before confirming availability.

Bank Transfer & Invoice Details

We'll create a quote for you to sign online. After confirmation, you'll receive an invoice and payment link, to be paid via bank transfer or credit card. The invoice must be paid within 14 days or 48 hours before the start of your booking.

For the quote and invoice, we need the following information:

- Company name (official name)
- Company address
- Contact person's name
- Billing person's email address
- Billing email address
- Purchase order number (if applicable)

Please send us these details, and we'll make sure you receive the quote promptly.
