

PRIMARY LOGO. The Single line Locked version is the Primary Logo. You'll use it most of the time.

PRIMARY LOGO WITH REGISTRATION MARK. Variation of the Primary Logo with a registration mark.

MARK. The Mark can be used alone whenever is playing an illustrative role.

FRAMED WORDMARK. The Framed Wordmark can only be used in combination with the Mark, whenever the Mark is used three times bigger (having an illustrative role).

PRIMARY LOGO + TAGLINE. We can attach short taglines following our grid system.

SECONDARY LOGO. The Single line Locked version is the Primary Logo. The stacked version is your secondary logo to be used only when the format demands it.

ALTERNATIVE LOGO. This logo has a higher stroke weight and should ONLY be used when technical requirements demand a higher stroke weight for reproduction.
