Banquet Guidelines

MEETING SPACE

The hotel reserves the right to change the rooms or rooms specified in the contract should the number of guests change, or it is deemed necessary by the resort. The client agrees to conduct the function in an orderly manner, in full compliance with the rules of the resort management, and with all the applicable laws, ordinances and regulations. The hotel will provide tables, linen, chairs, and a podium.

SIGNAGE

All signs must be professionally printed and approved by the resort. Easels will be provided, and your conference service manager will assist you in determining appropriate locations for signage. No signs are permitted at the lobby or any public areas.

AUDIOVISUAL SERVICES

A complete inventory of modern multi-media support is available through our in-house audiovisual company, Encore Global. Your conference service manager will be happy to assist you, or you may contact them directly. Please note that Wi-Fi is available in all meeting spaces for an additional fee. This fee will depend on the connection(s) needed for your meeting.

VENDORS GUIDELINES

- The hotel will not be responsible for any damages sustain by outside contracted vendors. The client should provide a form of active liability insurance or have each vendor submit to the hotel the proper insurance prior to the event date.
- Equipment and contracted personnel must enter, exit, load and unload equipment through the loading dock and security or as directed by the Hotel.
- All performers and personnel must remain in the area designated by the Hotel. Public areas of the Hotel will not be entered into unless so directed by the Hotel.
- The consumption of alcoholic beverages by subcontractors or other third parties while on the Hotel premises is not permitted.
