Terms & Conditions

These conditions apply to all guests attending a booking at Teppanyaki Restaurant

A deposit of £20 per person is payable when you confirm.

We're happy to refund or transfer your deposit if you give us more than seven days notice before your booking. If you cancel seven days or less before your booking, Teppanyaki reserves the right to retain your deposit in full. However, if you let us know before your booking that any guests can no longer attend, we will endeavour resell their seats, and if we are able to, we will be happy to refund the deposit for any seats we successfully resell.

Deposits are non-refundable for guests who do not attend on the day and will not be deducted from your final bill, unless their seats have been resold as outlined above. An additional charge of £20 per guest who does not attend without prior notification will also apply.

Your table is reserved for two hours from your booking time. We may need your table back promptly afterwards, but you're very welcome to relax in the bar area and continue to enjoy your evening.

Please aim to arrive on time so you can enjoy the full Teppanyaki experience. If you arrive more than 15 minutes late, your experience may be shortened and, in some cases, your booking may be forfeited.

For bookings of eight people or more, please submit your complete food pre-order at least one week before your booking. Please include each guest's full name alongside their menu choices together with any allergies or dietary requirements.

We look forward to sharing a great evening with you!
