

DARCY TIGHE

Darcy Tighe is a Manchester-born songwriter now shaking things up from her base in London. A relative newcomer to the professional songwriting world, Darcy has been making a serious impression since 2024, thanks to her left-of-centre lyrics, addictive toplines, and unmistakable creative spark.

Her sessions are a whirlwind of ideas, laughter, and unexpected turns - a space where artists feel safe enough to tear up the rulebook and chase more daring, boundary-pushing lyrical concepts. Darcy’s eccentric energy doesn’t just light up the room; it helps artists dig deeper and dream bigger.
