

Exactly What Gets Assessed — And What Doesn't

Before you sign the petition to establish the Sunnyside Management District, here is precisely which properties are subject to assessment, and proof of what successful Houston management districts have delivered for their communities.

Which Properties Are Assessed?

✓ SUBJECT TO ASSESSMENT

Commercial Property

- Land and improvements (buildings/structures) of commercial property within the District's boundaries
- Retail, office, industrial, and other business-use real property

Applies to real property only — not business equipment or inventory.

✗ EXEMPT — NOT ASSESSED

Everything Else

- Single-family detached homes
- Condominiums
- 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit organizations
- Qualifying recreational or scenic-use property under Texas Local Government Code §375.163
- Duplexes, triplexes, and quadraplexes
- Municipalities, counties & other political subdivisions
- Public utilities

Proven Success: Houston Management Districts at Work

Houston Southeast and Midtown are independent management districts cited here as examples of what this financing tool has achieved elsewhere in Houston. Results in Sunnyside will depend on the District's own adopted Service, Improvement, and Assessment Plan.

Houston Southeast

- Covers the Third Ward, MacGregor, Museum Park & Texas Medical Center-adjacent area
- Provides litter abatement and public landscaping upkeep district-wide
- Delivered the Caroline Street Promenade, a 1.7-mile, 15-block pedestrian & bicycle corridor improvement
- Led the OST/Palm Center Livable Centers Study to guide transit-oriented redevelopment
- Secured $320,000 in federal funding for area-wide mobility action planning

Midtown

- Funds enhanced public safety patrols across the district
- Invests over $2.2 million annually in supplemental public safety, contracting with nine law enforcement agencies
- Maintains and programs Bagby, Elizabeth Baldwin & Glover Parks
- Led streetscape refresh construction on Elgin, McGowen & Gray Streets
- Helped secure Midtown's State of Texas Cultural Arts & Entertainment District designation
- Provides graffiti abatement and public right-of-way upkeep district-wide
