About Andrew

Andrew Johnston is a Private Client Adviser who works closely with wholesale high-net-worth individuals and family groups, supporting them with sophisticated investment advice and portfolio strategies tailored to their long-term objectives.

With extensive experience across global financial markets, Andrew has held senior roles in institutional trading, advisory and wealth management, including time with UBS Investment Bank and UBS Wealth Management in London, Zurich, New York and Singapore. This exposure provided Andrew with a strong grounding in global markets, institutional investment thinking and disciplined risk management.

Since returning to Australia in 2013, Andrew has focused on helping wholesale clients navigate complex investment decisions with clarity and confidence. He takes a considered, outcome-focused approach, working collaboratively with clients and their professional advisers to ensure strategies are well understood, appropriately aligned and continuously reviewed.

He values long-term relationships and believes effective advice is built on transparency, education and trust, supported by disciplined portfolio construction and ongoing review.
