A JOURNEY THROUGH PAUL'S WORLD

Step into the world of the Apostle Paul on this 11-day journey, tracing the paths that laid the foundations of early Christianity. Discover Philippi, from its prison cells to the story of Lydia, Europe's first recorded convert. Explore the faithful communities of Thessaloniki and Veria, nurtured by his ministry. Ascend the Areopagus in Athens, where Paul delivered his monumental address, and wander the ancient streets of Corinth, shaped by his letters and teachings. Conclude in the Eternal City of Rome, reflecting on his final mission and enduring legacy.
