

From Bondage to Freedom: Week 1

Exodus 1:1-22

Summary: The outline provided is a suggested structure for the sermon based on the given title, topic, and scripture. It is important to further develop each point with relevant illustrations, explanations, and applications during the sermon.

Topic: God's Sovereignty, Trials, Seasons

The Supremacy of God's Sovereignty [Exodus 1:1-7]

1. God's control over circumstances
2. God's faithfulness in fulfilling His promises
3. God's providence in preserving His people

Trials and Testing in the Journey [Exodus 1:8-14]

1. The oppression and affliction of the Israelites
2. The purpose of trials in shaping character and faith
3. The hope and strength found in God during trials

Recognizing and Embracing Seasons of Life [Exodus 1:15-22]

1. The importance of discerning seasons in our lives
2. The dangers of resisting or rushing through seasons
3. The blessings and growth that come from embracing seasons