

Recognizing the Repeated Cycle, Understanding the Generation Gap, Bridging the Gap and Passing on the Faith

Judges 2:6-13

Summary: This outline discusses the repeated cycle of faith and apostasy in Judges 2, the generation gap that led to a lack of knowledge and idolatry, and the importance of teaching, personal commitment, and establishing a legacy of faith.

Topic: Passing Jesus on to the Next Generation

Recognizing the Repeated Cycle [Judges 2:6-7]

1. Revisiting the past [Judges 2:6]
2. Reflecting on the present [Judges 2:7a]
3. Realizing the consequences [Judges 2:7b]

Understanding the Generation Gap [Judges 2:10-12]

1. Identifying the lack of knowledge [Judges 2:10]
2. Ignoring the faith of their ancestors [Judges 2:11-12a]
3. Indulging in idolatry [Judges 2:12b]

Bridging the Gap and Passing on the Faith [Judges 2:13]

1. Emphasizing the importance of teaching [Judges 2:13a]

2. Encouraging personal commitment [Judges 2:13b]

3. Establishing a legacy of faith [Judges 2:13c]