1. Romans 12:2 - "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will." This verse emphasizes the importance of being transformed by renewing our minds, aligning with the theme of your sermon.

2. 2 Corinthians 3:18 - "And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit." 3. Ephesians 4:22-24 - "You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; to be made new in the attitude of your minds; and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness." ## Language Suggestions and Cross-References:

1. In Genesis 38, you can explore the Hebrew word for transformation used in the passage and its implications for your sermon. The word is "haphak" (הָפַךְ), which means "to turn," "to overturn," or "to transform." You can highlight how this word signifies a radical change or turning point in one's life.

2. Another relevant passage is Psalm 51:10, where the Hebrew word "bara" (בָּרָא) is used, meaning "to create" or "to make." This verse can be used to emphasize that transformation is a divine act of creation, where God makes us new.

3. Additionally, you can explore the Greek word for transformation used in Romans 12:2, which is "metamorphoō" (μεταμορφόω). This word implies a complete change in form or nature, like a caterpillar transforming into a butterfly. You can draw parallels between this natural process and the spiritual transformation we experience in Christ.

By incorporating these additional Scripture verses and exploring the original language meanings, you can further reinforce the concept of transformation and provide a deeper understanding for your listeners.
