Suggestions for moving forward with your sermon on teaching discipline to children for God:

1. Emphasize the importance of discipline in the upbringing of children:

- Proverbs 22:6 - "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it."
- Hebrews 12:11 - "For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it."

2. Highlight the role of parents in disciplining their children:

- Ephesians 6:4 - "Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord."
- Proverbs 13:24 - "Whoever spares the rod hates his son, but he who loves him is diligent to discipline him."

3. Discuss the benefits of discipline for children's spiritual growth:

- Proverbs 29:17 - "Discipline your son, and he will give you rest; he will give delight to your heart."

- Proverbs 3:11-12 - "My son, do not despise the Lord's discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the Lord reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights."

4. Explore the biblical principles of discipline:

- Proverbs 19:18 - "Discipline your son, for there is hope; do not set your heart on putting him to death."

- Proverbs 29:15 - "The rod and reproof give wisdom, but a child left to himself brings shame to his mother."

5. Offer practical suggestions for implementing discipline:

- Consistency in setting boundaries and consequences

- Modeling discipline through personal behavior

- Balancing discipline with love and grace

Additional language suggestions from the original languages:

- In Proverbs 22:6, the Hebrew word for "train up" is "ḥānōk," which implies dedication, initiation, and instruction.

- In Ephesians 6:4, the Greek word for "bring them up" is "ektrephō," which means to nourish, rear, or educate.

Other relevant passages:

- Deuteronomy 6:6-7 - Highlight the importance of teaching God's commandments diligently to children.

- Colossians 3:21 - Encourage parents not to provoke their children to anger but to bring them up in the discipline of the Lord.

Remember to weave these additional ideas and Scriptures into your existing sermon outline to reinforce your current points and provide a comprehensive message on teaching discipline to children for God.
