Suggestions for moving forward with your sermon:

1. Expanding on the beauty that came out of the tragedy of the cross:

- Explore the concept of redemption and how it is a beautiful outcome of the cross.

Use Ephesians 1:7 to emphasize how we have been redeemed through Christ's blood.

- Discuss the transformation that takes place in our lives when we accept Christ's sacrifice. Use 2 Corinthians 5:17 to highlight the idea of becoming a new creation in Christ.

- Reflect on the hope and joy that can be found in the midst of suffering, drawing from Romans 5:3-5, which speaks about how tribulations produce perseverance, character, and hope.

2. Highlighting the value God has placed on us:

- Emphasize the love of God by referencing John 3:16, which demonstrates the extent of His love for us.

- Discuss the concept of being chosen and adopted by God, using Ephesians 1:4-5 to support this idea.

- Explore the idea of being God's masterpiece, as mentioned in Ephesians 2:10, to emphasize our worth and value in His eyes.

3. Language suggestions and additional verses:

- In 1 Peter 1:18-19, the word "redeemed" (λυτρόω - lutroo) can be highlighted to convey the idea of being set free or rescued through Christ's sacrifice. This word is also used in Titus 2:14, where it emphasizes how Jesus redeemed us from all wickedness.
- The word "precious" (τίμιος - timios) in 1 Peter 1:19 can be emphasized to convey the high value God places on us. This word is also used in Revelation 5:9, where it describes the worthiness of Jesus to open the scroll.
