---

Scripture Verses to Support the Sermon Topic:

1. Psalm 16:11 - "You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore."

This verse emphasizes the source of joy, which is found in the presence of God.

2. Galatians 5:22-23 - "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law."

These verses highlight joy as one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, indicating that it is a characteristic that should be evident in the life of a believer.

3. Nehemiah 8:10b - "And do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength."

This verse emphasizes that joy in the Lord provides strength and encourages believers to find their joy in Him.

Language Suggestions from Original Scriptures:

1. Romans 15:13 - The word "hope" in this verse comes from the Greek word "elpis," which can also be translated as "expectation" or "confidence." You can emphasize the confident expectation of joy that comes from God.

2. Psalm 16:11 - The Hebrew word for "fullness" in this verse is "soba," which can also mean "abundance" or "satisfaction." You can highlight the idea that true joy is not just a fleeting emotion but a deep sense of satisfaction found in God's presence.

Other Relevant Scripture Passages:

1. James 1:2-3 - "Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness."

This passage can be used to show that joy can be present even in difficult circumstances and that it is developed through perseverance.

2. Philippians 4:4 - "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice."

This verse reinforces the call to rejoice and find joy in the Lord at all times.

Practical Suggestions:

1. Provide examples from biblical narratives or stories that illustrate women who exemplified joy in their faith journey.

2. Share practical steps or habits that can help cultivate joy in daily life, such as gratitude, prayer, and focusing on God's promises.

3. Explore the connection between joy and other aspects of the Christian life, such as love, peace, and contentment.

Remember to weave these additional ideas and Scriptures into your existing sermon outline to reinforce your main points and provide a well-rounded message on a woman of God exemplifying joy.
