Suggestions for moving forward with the sermon on "Hearing God":

1. Emphasize the importance of a receptive heart:

- Scripture: Proverbs 2:1-5
- Highlight the need for seeking wisdom and understanding from God.

2. Discuss the different ways God speaks to us:

- Scripture: Psalm 19:1-4
- Explore how God communicates through creation, His Word, and the Holy Spirit.

3. Address obstacles to hearing God's voice:

- Scripture: Mark 4:18-19
- Discuss distractions, busyness, and the cares of this world that hinder our ability to hear God.

4. Encourage active listening and discernment:

- Scripture: John 10:27
- Emphasize the need to cultivate a relationship with God and develop spiritual discernment.

5. Share practical steps to hear God's voice:

- Scripture: James 1:22-25
- Discuss the importance of not only hearing but also obeying God's Word.

6. Highlight the role of prayer in hearing God:

- Scripture: Matthew 7:7-8
- Encourage persistent prayer and seeking God's guidance.

7. Address doubts and uncertainties:

- Scripture: Isaiah 30:21
- Remind listeners that God promises to guide and direct us if we trust in Him.

8. Conclude with a call to action:

- Scripture: Romans 12:2
- Encourage listeners to renew their minds, be transformed, and actively pursue hearing God's voice in their lives.

Language suggestions from original languages:

1. In 1 Corinthians 14:10, the phrase "voices in the world" can be explored further to highlight the various ways God speaks to us.

2. In Proverbs 2:1-5, the Hebrew word for "wisdom" (chokmah) can be explained as divine insight and understanding.

3. In Psalm 19:1-4, the Hebrew word for "speech" (dabar) can be expanded upon to show how God's creation declares His glory.
4. In Mark 4:18-19, the Greek word for "worries" (merimna) can be explored to address the anxieties that hinder our ability to hear God.
5. In John 10:27, the Greek word for "hear" (akouo) can be explained as actively listening and obeying God's voice.

Additional verses to support the sermon's point:

1. Jeremiah 33:3 - Encourages seeking God and His guidance through prayer.
2. Romans 8:14 - Highlights the importance of being led by the Holy Spirit.
3. Hebrews 3:7-8 - Reminds us not to harden our hearts but to listen to God's voice.
4. 1 Samuel 3:10 - Illustrates the story of Samuel hearing God's voice and responding obediently.

Remember to weave these additional verses and language suggestions into your sermon to reinforce your current ideas and provide a well-rounded message on hearing God.
