1. Emphasize God's Faithfulness: Highlight the assurance that God is faithful to complete the work He began in us. You can explore other passages that reinforce this idea, such as:

- 1 Thessalonians 5:24: "The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do it."
- 2 Timothy 4:18: "The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen."

2. God's Work in Sanctification: Discuss how the work of God extends beyond salvation and into the process of sanctification. Explore passages that illustrate this ongoing transformation:

- Romans 8:29-30: Reflect on how God predestines believers to be conformed to the image of His Son.
- 2 Corinthians 3:18: Highlight the idea of being transformed into Christ's likeness with ever-increasing glory.

3. Encourage Active Participation: Encourage your listeners to actively participate in the work God is doing in their lives. Share practical suggestions on how they can cooperate with God's work:

- Philippians 2:12-13: Discuss the importance of working out their salvation with fear and trembling, while acknowledging that it is God who works in them.
- James 2:14-26: Explore the connection between faith and works, emphasizing the need for active obedience.

4. Language Suggestions and Cross-References: Consider incorporating language suggestions from the original languages to provide deeper insights for your audience. For example:

- In Philippians 1:6, the Greek word for "began" is ἐναρξάμενος (enarxamenos), which implies initiation or commencement. You can explore other instances where this word is used in the Bible, such as Acts 11:15 and 2 Corinthians 8:6, to draw connections and further reinforce your point.

Remember to weave these additional ideas and passages seamlessly into your existing sermon outline, reinforcing the central theme of God's work in us and His faithfulness to complete it.
