Suggestions for moving forward with your sermon on the topic of "open doors" and the goal of "victory belongs to me":

1. Emphasize God's Promises: Highlight the promises of God regarding open doors and victory. For example, you can include the following Scriptures:

- Revelation 3:8: "I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name."
- Psalm 118:19-20: "Open for me the gates of the righteous; I will enter and give thanks to the Lord. This is the gate of the Lord through which the righteous may enter."

2. Explore God's Faithfulness: Discuss how God has been faithful in opening doors throughout history and in the lives of believers. Use examples such as:

- The story of Joseph in Genesis 39-41, where God opened doors for him from being a slave to becoming a ruler in Egypt.
- The account of Paul and Silas in Acts 16:25-34, where God opened prison doors and brought salvation to the jailer and his household.

3. Encourage Faith and Persistence: Share how faith and persistence are essential in walking through open doors and obtaining victory. Consider including:

- Hebrews 10:35-36: "So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded. You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised."

- James 1:12: "Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him."

4. Highlight Practical Steps: Provide practical suggestions for your listeners to apply the concept of open doors and victory in their lives. For instance:

- Encourage them to seek God's guidance through prayer and studying His Word.
- Urge them to step out in faith and take opportunities that align with God's will.
- Remind them to trust in God's timing and not be discouraged by closed doors.
