Suggestions for moving forward with your sermon on the topic of "Reaping what you Sow" and the "Judgment of God":

1. Expand on the concept of sowing and reaping: Discuss the importance of sowing good seeds in our lives, such as love, kindness, and righteousness, and how they will bear good fruit. Use Galatians 6:7-9 to emphasize the principle of reaping what we sow.
2. Explore the consequences of sowing wickedness: Highlight the negative consequences of sowing seeds of sin and disobedience. Use passages like Proverbs 22:8 and Galatians 6:8 to illustrate the idea that those who sow wickedness will reap destruction.
3. Discuss God's judgment and justice: Explain how God's judgment is a natural consequence of our actions. Use Romans 2:5-6 to emphasize that God will judge everyone according to their deeds.

4. Address the importance of repentance: Emphasize that even though we may have sown seeds of sin, we can still turn to God in repentance and receive His forgiveness. Use 2 Chronicles 7:14 to encourage listeners to humble themselves, seek God's face, and turn from their wicked ways.

5. Connect the message to Jesus' teachings: Show how Jesus often spoke about sowing and reaping in His parables, such as the Parable of the Sower (Matthew 13:1-23). Highlight how Jesus' teachings reinforce the principle of reaping what we sow.

6. Provide practical applications: Offer practical suggestions for your listeners to apply the message in their daily lives. Encourage them to examine their actions, seek forgiveness, and make intentional choices to sow good seeds.
