

The Power of Believing and Saying It

Mark 11:23

Main idea: To encourage believers to walk in faith by believing in God's promises and declaring them over their lives

Topic: Believe It and Say It

Suggestions for moving forward with the sermon:

1. Emphasize the power of faith: Expand on the concept of believing and saying it, highlighting the transformative power of faith. Use examples from other biblical passages that illustrate the impact of faith on people's lives. (Hebrews 11:1, Matthew 17:20)
2. Discuss the importance of aligning our words with our beliefs: Explore the connection between our words and our faith. Explain how our words have the power to shape our reality and influence our circumstances. Use additional verses that emphasize the significance of our speech. (Proverbs 18:21, James 3:5-6)
3. Address potential challenges to walking in faith: Acknowledge that maintaining faith can be challenging at times. Discuss common obstacles such as doubt, fear, and discouragement. Offer practical suggestions for overcoming these challenges, such as prayer, seeking support from fellow believers, and meditating on God's promises. (Psalm 34:4, Isaiah 41:10)
4. Highlight the role of perseverance: Encourage your audience to persevere in their faith journey, even when they face setbacks or unanswered prayers. Share examples from the Bible of individuals who demonstrated unwavering faith despite difficult circumstances. (Hebrews 10:36, James 1:12)

5. Provide practical steps for applying faith in daily life: Offer practical suggestions for how your listeners can apply the principles of believing and saying it in their everyday lives. Encourage them to speak positive affirmations based on God's promises and to declare their faith in challenging situations. (Romans 4:17, Proverbs 3:5-6)

Additional Scripture verses to support your point:

1. Romans 10:9 - "If you declare with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." This verse reinforces the importance of both believing and confessing our faith.

2. Matthew 21:22 - "If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer." This verse emphasizes the connection between faith and answered prayers.

Language suggestions from the original languages:

1. In Mark 11:23, the Greek word for "believe" is "pisteuō," which conveys the idea of having faith, trusting, and relying on something or someone. Emphasize the depth of trust and confidence that believers should have in God's promises.

2. The Greek word for "say" in Mark 11:23 is "legō," which means to speak, declare, or affirm. Encourage your audience to speak words of faith and declare God's promises over their lives.

Other places where these words are used in the Bible:

1. The word "believe" (pisteuō) is used extensively throughout the New Testament, particularly in the Gospel of John. Explore other passages where this word is used to further illustrate the importance of faith.
2. The word "say" (legō) appears throughout the Bible, often in the context of God's commands or promises. Look for instances where individuals spoke words of faith and experienced God's intervention or fulfillment of His promises.

Remember to incorporate these suggestions and additional verses in a way that reinforces your current ideas and supports your main point of encouraging people to walk in faith.
