

How AERTiCKET improved its hedging with Currency Management Automation

AERTiCKET is one of the largest independent airline wholesalers in Europe. Their primary business is the brokerage of airline tickets to travel agencies, tour operators and Online Travel Agencies. Headquartered in Germany, they also have subsidiaries in the USA, France, Spain, UK, Poland, Austria, Switzerland and Turkey. AERTiCKET cooperates with many consolidators worldwide to offer airfares and availability from over 100 countries.

Currency Management Automation software for end-to-end FX automation

FX CHALLENGES

- The significant risk due the increase in FX revenue from 2017/2018 because of growing internationalisation.
- The need to lighten the heavy manual FX management workload that was overwhelming their team.
- The changing and unpredictable nature of the firm’s hedging requirements.

KANTOX SOLUTIONS

- AERTiCKET implemented a micro-hedging program to handle frequent pricing updates and hedge their foreign currency sales in a more timely manner.
- Kantox’s application programming interface (API) fully automated solution integration.
- Kantox Dynamic Hedging® streamlined the collection of AERTiCKET’s foreign currency exposure data while removing costs and operational risk.

BENEFITS

- Efficiencies were achieved by automating the end-to-end FX workflow, saving time and allowing the treasury team to focus on more value-adding tasks.
- AERTiCKET were able to achieve large scale international expansion without higher personnel costs or major FX risks.
- FX management is now carried out in accordance with business rules and parameters set by the firm’s risk managers
