Surfboard

This iconic coffee table was originally designed in 1959 by the Danish furniture designer, Arne Hovmand-Olsen, who was well known for his innovative, Scandinavian style furniture design. From the very start, the coffee table was known as 'Surfboard, a word that sums up the design perfectly. The length of the tabletop is a real plus when many people are seated on a sofa. The Surfboard coffee table makes its mark with its high quality and a design that testifies to the designer's love of wood.
