

TINZA

2024 VISSER & MEIJWAARD

DESIGN INSPIRATION

Today, the clear sound of the ting-sha—two small cymbals, joined by a leather strap—reverberates across the world, from the Buddhist monasteries of Tibet. The sound has become synonymous with calmness and mindfulness. Dutch duo Visser & Meijwaard were inspired by the modest ting-sha in their design of this pendant 'Tinza', where a brass 'cymbal' balances atop a ball of soft pink glass.

LINTELOO

DESIGNED BY VISSER & MEIJWAARD

Visser & Meijwaard is the design studio of Steven Visser (1985) and Vera Meijwaard (1988) in Arnhem, The Netherlands, both of whom graduated from ArtEZ in product design. They are ambitious, talented and have an interesting way of seeing the beauty in sometimes utterly mundane objects. An immense Berlage-esque cabinet was inspired by the unassuming lines of a simple grey plastic crate. And their strikingly beautiful Bombé screen for Linteloo harks back to none-too-interesting garden chair cushions. They are able to see aesthetics where none were intended, retrieve them, enlarge them and turn them into something quite extraordinary. Visser & Meijwaard's work ranges from interior to conceptual design, and from presentation to set design. Their versatility and unique outlook are quickly gaining them international acclaim.
