Toki Dining Chair

The Toki chair is born from a harmonious search for substance and essentiality. The circular seat and the wide, enveloping backrest, together with the soft silhouette that characterises it, create an experience of immediate comfort that begins with the sight. Two generously padded elements are supported by a wooden structure with rounded lines. The design draws inspiration from ancient Japanese woodworking, reinterpreted through the entirely Made in Italy language that characterises Secolo's production. Available in solid wood or in the brand's typical matt or glossy lacquers, Toki combines formal rigor and comfort, offering a seat with an essential and refined character.
