Trace Modular

Designed by TABLEAU for Secolo, Trace Modular is a sectional sofa defined by organic geometries and continuous volumes, conceived to give shape to fluid and constantly evolving configurations. Characterized by curved elements and movable backrests, it introduces an open and multidirectional approach to seating, encouraging interaction and new ways of experiencing space.

Designed for both residential and public spaces, Trace Modular combines a strong sculptural presence with high design versatility. Its soft, enveloping forms create a dynamic living space, where comfort and connection coexist within the same spatial experience.
