(Please click here to download and complete the declaration form if you declare that you possess at least two years of work experience in a related field.)

For Whom

- Supervisors, team leaders and those aspiring to achieve managerial positions;
- Insurance staff employed in support functions wishing to develop their knowledge of the business; and
- Those wanting to pursue a pathway towards achieving Associateship of the Chartered Insurance Institute (ACII) designation.

Modules Overview

ADGI05 Claims Management

It provides a deep dive into claims strategy, environment, and operations management within organizations. It emphasizes internal communications, claims service excellence, and effective handling principles, while exploring technical aspects, policy applications, and key financial considerations. The module includes a focused section on the Monetary Authority of Singapore's (MAS) Guidelines on Fair Dealing. This addition aims to ensure alignment with regulatory standards and foster high-quality customer service in claims, complaints, and retention.

Updates on the General Insurance Association (GIA) Fraud Management System and its collaboration with Swift to counter travel insurance fraud are also integrated, highlighting the importance of fraud prevention. Overall, it prepares professionals to efficiently manage claims operations, adhere to regulatory compliance, and secure customer trust in the financial sector.

ADGI06 Risk Management in Insurance*

It aims to provide the knowledge on the application of key risk management principles and practices in insurance organisations i.e. insurance companies and insurance brokers. It highlights the risk identification and the prioritisation processes, as well as the methods of risk assessment and analysis. Concepts such as risk controlling techniques, risk transfer as well as methods of risk monitoring and review, will also provide the candidate with a better understanding of risk management in insurance organisations.

Prior to 1 July 2020, ADGI06 was known as Risk Management.*

ADGI07 Business and Economics

It aims to deepen candidates' understanding of the interconnectivity between insurance and economics. The study text introduces fundamental economic principles and their role in the global and Singaporean economies. It reviews key economic theories and concepts such as demand and supply, competition, unemployment, inflation, monetary and fiscal policies, balance of payments, and exchange rates. The text applies these theories within the insurance context, highlighting business issues like ethics, corporate governance, and risk management, alongside financial aspects like financing and management accounting. It introduces topics such as Behavioural Economics, InsurTech for fraud detection, and the economic impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. It also includes updates like the MAS Fair Dealing Guidelines and the MAS Code of Corporate Governance, focusing on ethical standards and governance, and covers advanced topics like Singapore's labour dynamics and financial models.

Advisory Note, Student Contract & Withdrawal Policy During and After Cooling-off Period

All candidates are required to sign an Advisory Note as well as an electronic Student Contract with the SCI before registering for the first module of the ADGIRM. The SCI offers a Cooling-Off Period of 10 calendar days from the date of signing the Student Contract. Should a candidate decide to withdraw from the module registered for, within the Cooling-Off Period, he must notify the SCI by way of electronic mail (email). A full refund of examination fee paid including one-time registration fee of S$32.70 (inclusive of GST), if any, will be made within 7 working days from the day of withdrawal in such instance. The date of withdrawal must fall within the 10 calendar days from the date of the Student Contract duly signed. No withdrawal is allowed after the cooling-off period.

Registration

Candidates are required to sign the Advisory Note and Student Contract before registration for examination of the first ADGIRM module. Please provide the SCI with the following information to prepare the Student Contract and send it to your registered email address via DocuSign:-

1. Examination Module: (insert the title of your first examination module)
2. Examination Date: (insert the examination date of the module above)

Once the Student Contract signing process is complete, candidates can register for a maximum of two modules at one time. New candidates are required to sign one Student Contract for the entire ADGIRM programme. For subsequent examinations, please check the examination schedule and register for them on the SCI website.

To be eligible for the member's rate upon registration for the ADGIRM examinations, candidates of the member companies are required to ensure their company's email address in "User's Email Address" field is updated, and reflect the correct name of the company in "Name of Employer" field. You can update the email address and employer's name in "Update Personal Particulars" on the Dashboard after logging in to the SCI's user account.

Start and End Date of Qualification

Qualification start date shall be the date of the first registered examination date and the end date shall be the date that the candidate passes his last module, which may be 84 months or earlier. The programme is offered on a part-time basis.

Minimum Study Hours

Candidates are recommended to study at least 150 hours for each Advanced Diploma module. However, the study hours vary according to each candidate's experience and ability.

Graduation Requirements

To qualify for the Advanced Diploma in General Insurance and Risk Management (ADGIRM) award, candidates are given 7 consecutive years (or 84 months) from the date of first registered examination date to pass all the 7 modules comprising:

- DGI01 Legal Aspects of Insurance;
- DGI02 Insurance Company Operations;
- DGI03 Commercial Property and Business Interruption Underwriting;
- DGI04 Liability Insurance Underwriting;
- ADGI05 Claims Management;
- ADGI06 Risk Management in Insurance; and
- ADGI07 Business and Economics.

Maximum Completion Period

Candidates are given 7 consecutive years (or 84 months) from the date of first registered examination date to pass all the above mentioned 7 modules. Should the candidate be absent or decide to transfer his first registered examination date to another date, the maximum completion period will still start from the first registered examination date. Modules passed or exempted exceeding 7 years (or 84 months) from the date of first registered examination date are considered outdated passes and will not count towards meeting the ADGIRM qualifying requirements. If the candidate does not complete all the modules within this time limit, the modules previously passed or exempted will no longer be valid and the candidate will be required to restart the ADGIRM programme and sit for all the modules.

It is the candidate's responsibility to monitor his own completion period for the examination completion of the ADGIRM programme. The SCI will not send any notification to remind the candidate in this respect.

If there are any changes to the modules, the SCI will make every effort to ensure that the candidate is not disadvantaged by such changes. There will be a proper transitional arrangement for the candidate.

As a rule, no extension to the maximum completion period will be considered and no related appeal will also be entertained. However, only on a case-by-case basis, approvals are granted for candidates who wish to appeal against the rule. Candidates are required to write in to the SCI at talk2us@scidomain.org.sg with supporting reasons and documentary evidence within 30 days from the expiry date to seek for an extension. The SCI will only consider any appeal extension applications by candidates whose maximum completion period has expired. In the event the candidate writes in before the expiry date, the SCI will advise him/her to write in to the SCI again after his/her completion period has expired. The SCI will also not consider any appeals that are written in 30 days after the expiry date.

Release of SMART result slips and SMART certificate Parchment/Transcript

Candidates that have successfully completed the examinations for the respective modules will be issued with SMART Result Slips sent to their email addresses on our records. Those who have been unsuccessful will receive an email notification from the SCI. Please refer to "SMART Result Slips Release Dates" as shown on page 6. Candidates who pass all DGIRM modules and ADGI05–ADGI07 will be issued with a SMART Certificate Parchment for ADGIRM together with a SMART Transcript within a month after all the required modules, DGI01 - DGI04 and ADGI05 - ADGI07 have been completed and passed. No hard copies will be issued.

CPD Hours

3 hours per module will be awarded upon passing the examination.

Designatory Letters Upon Achieving The Qualification

Upon successful completion of all the examination modules within the specified time frame, candidates will be eligible to use the certification designation: Adv Dip SCI (GI & RM).

Note: The DGIRM is part of the ADGIRM. The Advanced Diploma Certificate will be issued ONLY upon successful completion of the Diploma and Advanced Diploma levels modules (DGI01 to DGI04 and ADGI05 to ADGI07).

Refund Policy | No refund is allowed after the cooling-off period.
