
I Love You, Mom

May 9th, 2021

I don't say it enough,
so it's important
on days like today
that I tell you how much having a mom like you
means to me –
only everything.

Happy Mother's Day

Dear Mom,

When I think of all the mother's that God could have given me. Chosen for me to have I have & now after many years and and realize appreciate Why He chose you Were the one! As the saying goes "Better late. then never!" You by the same token may have Why God assigned you to be my mother, Lol As the saying goes with this slight modification "We've come along way baby".

Hugs and Love,
Erica
