Dearest Judy,

Especially at this time, your "Special Birthday", I very much would like to express my thoughts with pen as you are able and gifted so to do, but alas I must simply say:

I am very proud of the person you are — your integrity, intelligence, and the beauty and poetry of your inner and outer self, that you express in so many ways.

My wish for you is to wipe away the sadness, and bestow complete happiness and harmony and

Love — Always —
