

How to use this communication board

This board can be used by any individual who experiences communication difficulties, or is non-speaking.

Point to symbols on this board while you talk to the communicator.
Point to symbols that you think your communicator might want to say.
Speak as you normally do while touching just 1 or 2 key symbols.
Examples: "Let's GO to the BATHROOM.", "This is so FUN!", "Time to EAT."

oarc.ca

open access resource centre oarc
www.oarc.ca

open access resource centre

a	b	c	d	I'll spell it d-o-g	not on board	You don't understand	Something's wrong	hungry	thirsty	I have something to say talk talk talk e	f	g	h	it starts with ABC	I'll give you a hint	I'm telling a story	It's too loud	happy	sad	bathroom
i	j	k	l	m	n	I have an idea	hard to wait	mad	worried	I'm sorry o	p	q	r	s	t	I'm asking a question ?	I'm not ready!	sick	tired	please u	v	w	x	y	z	I need to leave/break	I don't want to	hurt	frustrated	thank you 1	2	3	4	5	Please wait	leave me alone	This is fun	This is boring	I'm joking	wow
6	7	8	9	0	Ask a yes/ no question yes no ?	Do it myself	favorite	I don't like it	LOL LOL	awesome

To learn more about Augmentative & Alternative Communication (AAC), and communication devices for children in Manitoba, scan the QR code.

open access resource centre
oarc
www.oarc.ca

oarc.ca