ASC – REPORTING

As part of our ASC certification, we are required to publicly disclose information about our production activities to our stakeholders on an annual basis.

ASC is an internationally recognised sustainability standard that sets stringent requirements for environmental impact, fish health, occupational health and safety (OHS), working conditions, and responsible operations.
The standard also requires our suppliers and business partners to comply with relevant requirements relating to sustainability, quality, and responsible production.

45073 Frosvika

Topic	Reporting
Unexplained loss (EUL)	G23: -6,51%, G25:
Escapes	G25: 0
Antibiotics treatment	G23: None, G25: None
ASC Certification	Under initial assessment 1st certification date:
Start ongoing production cycle	21.10.25
Report last updated	14.10.26
WOAH/OIE notifiable disease	No https://www.barentswatch.no/fiskehelse/locality/45073

Wildlife interactions

Date	#	Mammal/Bird	Species	Cause	Site

Norcod AS
Thomas Angells gate 22
7011 Trondheim
Norway