01. DECKS

Decking solutions for every step

With indoor-outdoor flow being a priority for Kiwi homes, decks are a hugely popular addition. Functionally, decks can be constructed as an entrance or stepping stone into your garden, and there is a choice of materials to build them from.

When it comes to decking size does matter, the bigger the better! Ensure your outdoor furniture can fit comfortably in the decking space you have decided on.

02. FENCING

Secure your space
with style

An essential element of any landscape, but that doesn't mean fencing has to be an eyesore. We view fencing as being a feature of your outdoor space that provides you with security and privacy while complementing your property and defining your boundary.

We also ensure that any partition fencing, such as pool enclosures, reflect your overall landscape design.

Utilise your outdoors by creating multiple spaces in one, after all, the result is all in the detail.

We understand the frustration of working with companies that under-deliver or over-promise. That's why we pride ourselves on being good people who do great work.

Tim & June Perfect

“ They worked well with our designer.

We have really enjoyed working with Groundcover Landscaping from the start of our project.

They have worked well with our designer to create an instant garden giving their advice whenever we had difficult decisions and keeping us informed from start to finish.

Nothing was ever too much trouble, and they always seemed prepared to go the extra mile to finish the job. They were always happy to accommodate our indecision to meet our needs.

We look forward to enjoying the garden as it matures over the years.
