Get ready for the summer of a lifetime! Young people will dive into thrilling sports and endless fun at our stunning seaside campus, just 5 minutes from the beach! Along the way, they'll sharpen their English and Spanish skills and form friendships with campers from all around the world.

Your child will have the opportunity to create their own unique Hamelin-Laie Summer Camp experience. It all begins by selecting your preferred session dates, followed by choosing between our day or boarding options. Our day programme runs from 9 am to 6:30 pm, while the boarding option provides 24/7 care, supervised by the dedicated Hamelin-Laie boarding staff.

We look forward to welcoming them to an unforgettable summer!

For students aged 12 to 16, Hamelin International Summer Camp offers a unique opportunity to grow, build new skills, explore diverse cultures, and create lasting friendships in a vibrant international setting. With two two-week sessions, families can choose the ideal dates for a full summer experience of learning and fun, guided by experienced staff.

This immersive, overnight camp is designed for 45 resident campers, with additional spaces for day campers. Each day is carefully planned to combine structured activities and free time, fostering a close-knit, dynamic community. Mornings are dedicated to activities like racket sports, water sports, and football, while cultural excursions to Barcelona's museums and monuments enrich the experience with local heritage.

Special weekend outings include trips to the Costa Brava and Tarragona, while Sunday activities keep the fun going on campus. Afternoon language lessons in English or Spanish and engaging evening games ensure a well-rounded camp experience that promotes language immersion and teamwork.

Hamelin International Summer Camp stands out for its personalized approach, allowing campers to select sports and language options to match their interests. Located by the beach in beautiful Barcelona, the camp combines scenic views with high-quality, Swiss-standard safety and management, giving families peace of mind.

Spaces are limited-register early to secure a place for your child at Hamelin International Summer Camp, where each day is an opportunity to learn, grow, and make lifelong memories!
