

Bethel Christian School

CODE OF CONDUCT

Parent

As the parent/guardian of a student-athlete at Bethel Christian School ("BCS"), I agree to:

1. Value my role in the culture we are creating.
2. Honor God through my conduct at all practices, games, and events.
3. Support coaches and school leadership, trusting that they guide my children in athletic and spiritual development.
4. Be Responsible for paying the $130 sports fee when due.
5. Model Christ-like behavior by respecting all players, coaches, officials, and other spectators.
6. Speak truth in love, addressing concerns with coaches respectfully, privately, and after the heat of the moment, following principles of the Conflict Resolution/Due Process Policy outlined in the BCS Student Handbook.
7. Be committed and responsible for my child attending all practices and games on time, and staying up to date with team communications.
8. Communicate with coaches when my child is sick or has an ailment that may affect the safety or well-being of my child or others on the team.
9. Remember that sports are fun and filled with learning moments for life.
10. Understand that BCS has academic standards for eligibility to play.
11. Champion my child to grow and work despite wins and losses, encouraging humility in victory and grace in defeat.
12. Celebrate my child for fulfilling their role on the team.

I have read and understand the expectations outlined above. I agree to support my child, their teammates, the coaching staff, and the athletic program in a positive and respectful manner.
