Lompoc Man Sentenced to Nine Years in State Prison for Retail Theft

Re: People v. Myichael Kheal Jahmyi Tyre Lennon,
Santa Barbara Superior Court, Case No. 25CR03848

LOMPOC, Calif., November 5, 2025 - Santa Barbara County District Attorney John T. Savrnoch announced today that 36-year-old Myichael Kheal Jahmyi Tyre Lennon of Lompoc was sentenced to nine years and four months in State Prison by the Honorable Judge Stephen Dunkle after being found guilty by a jury of five felony counts of theft.

Between March 15, 2025, and May 17, 2025, Lennon entered Marshalls and Walmart stores in Lompoc on five separate occasions. Each time, he stole multiple items of merchandise and left the store without paying, often exiting through a fire escape with the stolen goods.

On August 18, 2025, a Santa Barbara County jury convicted Lennon of four counts of petty theft with prior convictions and one count of second-degree commercial burglary. The jury also found true that Lennon had previously been convicted of two prior strike offenses.

District Attorney John Savrnoch stated, “This office is committed to stopping serial thieves who continue to victimize our local businesses in Santa Barbara County. This verdict ensures that the defendant and anyone else who thinks they can steal without consequences will be held accountable for their actions.”
