

Jeff Allen: The Christmas Tour

Clean. Hilarious. Unforgettable.

This holiday season, join one of America's most beloved comedians for a night of laughter that the whole family will enjoy. Jeff Allen combines world-class humor with a heartwarming look at life, making him a favorite on Dry Bar Comedy, Netflix, Amazon, Pureflix, and countless clubs, theaters, and corporate events for the past forty plus years.

Nearly two billion video views, over two million followers across social media and a record-setting seven Dry Bar specials, Jeff is a viral sensation—but nothing compares to seeing him live on stage. His "sidesplitting" comedy drives home the humor in everyday family life: the ups and downs of marriage, the challenge of raising children, the bliss of the empty nest, and the newfound joys of being a grandparent.

A Special Holiday Stop on the Journey

Jeff is staring down his 70th year and starting to think about slowing down—sort of. While his official My First Final Farewell Tour kicked off earlier in 2026, he's hitting the road this Christmas to bring you a mix of fan favorites and fresh material. From the classic "Happy Wife, Happy Life" routine you've quoted for years to brand-new takes on aging and family, Jeff pulls it all together for a night that is as uplifting as it is hilarious.

Don't miss this chance to see a master of his craft. Whether you know him from Huckabee, Comedy Central, or the films Apostles of Comedy, the critically acclaimed acting role in My 7 Grandmas and in production for the highly anticipated new series based on his book Are We There Yet? come experience why Jeff Allen is considered the world's most inspiring comedian.

Celebrate the season with laughter, family, and Jeff Allen.
