

“I can’t afford a bottleneck at check-in and badging!”

As an Event Manager, your reputation rides on that crucial first interaction: check-in & badging. When hundreds of attendees arrive simultaneously, the system must perform under pressure. There is zero tolerance for bottlenecks.

The Challenge

Time Window Crunch:

500+ attendees arriving in a 30-minute window.

Line Anxiety:

Even a 5-minute delay can snowball into a 20-minute line.

First Impression Matters:

Check-in is the brand handshake. Lag here erodes trust instantly.

Staff Limitations:

Volunteers or temporary staff can't afford a clunky process.

Lack of Visibility:

No way of knowing how the event is doing in real-time.

Internet Unreliability:

Internet issues can cause a lot of disruption
