

LLB (Hons) Law (Top-Up)

University of Wolverhampton

The LLB (Hons) Law (Top-Up) degree is designed for learners who have already completed a relevant legal qualification and wish to progress to a full honours degree in law. Completed in a shorter time frame, the programme strengthens legal knowledge, analytical thinking, and research skills required for professional and academic development within the legal field. The course covers key areas of law, legal research, ethics, and critical legal analysis, while developing a deeper understanding of legal systems and contemporary legal issues.
