Make smart benefit decisions with Castlight

During Open Enrollment, you're faced with important decisions that impact your health as well as your finances. Castlight can support you during the process so you can feel confident about your decisions and maximize the value of your benefits.

Support you can trust

Understand your current coverage

- See exactly what plans you're enrolled in and review the details of what's covered.
- Consider the type of plans you have and who's enrolled to ensure you have sufficient coverage for next year.
- Take advantage of benefits you haven't used before the end of the year.

Manage your healthcare spending

- Review your claims, see what you've spent this year, and confirm if you've met your deductible.
- View your health fund balances to help you decide how much to contribute next year.
- Estimate the cost of services you may need.

Check in on your wellbeing

- Update progress on meeting your health goals.
- See what preventive visits and screenings you may have missed this year.
- Complete any activities, earn points, and redeem for rewards before the end of the year.

Find Care you may need

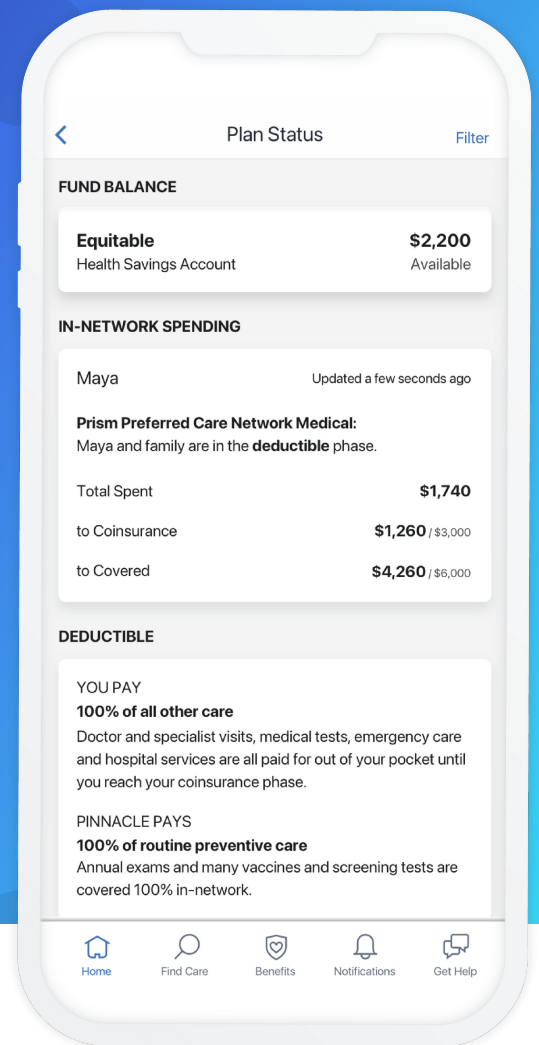

- Anticipate care needs for you or your family, especially for any pre-existing conditions.
- Search for high-quality, low-cost providers in your network and review detailed information, including locations, language spoken, and quality ratings.
- Ensure all family members have a PCP or specialist if needed and add to Your Care Team.
