2026 Israel Nucleic Acids Therapeutics Meeting

May 4th, 2026

Sela Auditorium
Weizmann Institute of Science

This meeting, hosted by the recently established Abisch-Frenkel Center for RNA therapeutics, will bring together participants from academic labs and biotechnology companies interested in RNA and DNA therapeutics, broadly defined, with the joint goal of discussing how to advance the field forward.

The meeting will include a keynote lecture by a speaker from abroad and short presentations from both academic labs and industry representatives.
