Josh Kelley: A Class A PGA Pro based in Pleasant Hill, CA, is an expert in the field with over a decade of teaching experience and numerous certifications. He played in the NCAA championships as a member of the Saint Mary's Gaels, and spent 2 years as a professional on the Asian tour. As a PGA member he continues to compete in the NCPGA and dreams of one day qualifying for the US Open or PGA Championship.

Cody Robinson: A PGA Associate, Cody is a former assistant coach for the Gaels, who holds TPI 1 certifications, is a Master Fitter, and was the Assistant Pro at MPCC. His competitive golf career began at age 5 and continued through his time as a D1 player at Washington State University and Saint Mary's College, followed by professional experience on the PGA Tour Latin America and Asia Developmental Tour. Most recently, Cody was the 2023 Northern California PGA Assistants Champion.

Blake Bertrand: A PGA Associate, is a dedicated golf professional with over 15 years of experience. As a skilled instructor, club maker, and fitting expert, he is trained in the latest golf technologies, including Trackman, SportsboxAI, and TPI. Blake's career began at a young age, and he is dedicated to helping players unlock their full potential through personalized coaching and advanced technology.

Danny Faina: A lifelong passion for sports performance and fitness, beginning his career as a NSCA-certified personal trainer over a decade ago. He is also a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS), with an Associate's Degree in Fitness Instruction (DVC, 2018) and a Bachelor's Degree in Exercise Science (CSUS, 2021). Additionally, he is TPI certified for fitness and power (Level 2) and a certified sports performance coach (EXOS, NSPA).
