Alumni Community FAQs

Everything you need to know about the Celfocus / Novabase Alumni Community.

1. What are the benefits of joining the Celfocus / Novabase Alumni Community?

Being part of the Celfocus / Novabase Alumni Community means staying connected to a network of people who have shared part of the same journey. It's an opportunity to reconnect with former colleagues, grow your professional network, exchange experiences and ideas, and stay close to what's happening at Celfocus.

2. How can I join the community?

Just email marketing@celfocus.com and ask to join! We will add your email to our database and send you regular communications.

3. What can I expect as a member of the community?

The community is about keeping the connection going beyond your time at Celfocus. As a member, you'll have access to exclusive content, community news, networking moments, special initiatives and opportunities to reconnect, share knowledge and explore new possibilities together.

4. What does "Share a Contact" mean?

Know someone that could benefit from our knowledge and services? Share a Contact is a simple way to point us towards someone in your professional network who could be a valuable connection, whether for exchanging ideas, exploring collaboration or opening up new possibilities. You share the connection, and we take it from there.

5. What does "Make an Introduction" mean?

Sometimes, a personal introduction can make all the difference. Make an Introduction means bringing Celfocus and someone in your network together directly, helping to start a meaningful conversation. Whether it leads to knowledge sharing, collaboration or a future opportunity, your introduction can be the starting point for something valuable.

6. Can I still contribute to Celfocus after I leave?

Absolutely. Leaving Celfocus doesn’t have to mean leaving the network behind. The Alumni Community gives you different ways to stay involved, share your experience and connections, exchange ideas and contribute to new opportunities, while continuing to be part of a community that grows with you.

7. Can I leave the Alumni Community at any time?

Of course. You’re free to leave the community whenever you wish. We’ll be sorry to see you go, though, as leaving means you’ll no longer have access to the exclusive content, community updates, networking moments, special initiatives and opportunities available to Celfocus Alumni. The door is always open, but we hope you’ll choose to stay connected.
