

John Sherwin

Land Sales Associate

An experienced business owner and client-focused professional with a career rooted in building relationships and improving asset value. His background spans property management, business development, direct marketing, and financial operations, including owning and operating Lesse Management. Backed by an MBA and a foundation in finance, he brings a steady, relationship-first approach to serving landowners, developers, and investors across Georgia.

Atlanta-based, he lives with his wife, Marcia, and has two adult children who also live locally. Outside the office, he stays competitive in pool leagues and pickleball, enjoys reading, and good pizza.
