

Chris Holland

Chattanooga Market Director

Chris joined Realty Companies in 2003, bringing deep experience in sales, marketing, and management. He launched our Forsyth County brokerage presence with a core focus on land for residential, industrial, and commercial development. Under his leadership, Realty Companies has maintained a dominant position in Forsyth County through countless strategic transactions, supporting the county’s reputation as one of the fastest-growing in the U.S.

A major accomplishment includes representing the Forsyth County Board of Education in acquiring key tracts for future elementary, middle, and high school sites—helping keep the district among Georgia’s top. In 2020, Chris was selected as Chattanooga Market Director, quickly elevating local recognition. His integrity and professionalism have earned trust and helped generate $350 million in sales to date.
