

Michael Schaum

Commercial Associate

Michael Schaum has a background in finance and real estate, along with strong ties to the University of South Florida. At this stage in his career, he’s focused on building durable fundamentals in commercial real estate—staying curious, learning fast, and showing up consistently for clients and teammates.

Known for his positive energy and interest in connecting with others, Michael approaches each opportunity with an eye toward long-term growth. Outside of work, he enjoys exploring Tampa, pursuing photography, following football, and staying active.
