EURISGA INAUGURAL JEAN MONNET LECTURE 2023

Delivered by

Professor Bert Koenders

"How to negotiate successfully in the EU? Lessons learned as a former Foreign Minister and from the Dutch EU Policies of the last Decade"

7 November 2022

Wijnhaven Campus, Leiden University, The Hague

Lecture Hall 2.02

Co-funded by the European Union

This lecture is part of the Jean Monnet Chair on the European Union's Role in Security and Global Affairs (EURISGA), co-funded by the European Union under grant agreement number 101085789.

Programme

18.15 – 18.30	Welcome and Introduction by Professor Joachim A. Koops Jean Monnet Chair on the European Union's Role in Security and Global Affairs (EURISGA) and Professor of Security Studies, Institute of Security and Global Affairs
18.30 – 19.30	"How to negotiate successfully in the EU? Lessons learned as a former Foreign Minister and from the Dutch EU Policies of the last Decade" Jean Monnet Lecture by Professor Bert Koenders.
19.30 – 20.15	Q&A
20.15 – 21.30	Light Reception

Registration

Attendance is free, but registration is required. Please send your request for attendance by 30 October 2022 to secretariaat.isga@fgga.leidenuniv.nl

About the Jean Monnet Lecturer 2023

Prof. Bert Koenders holds the Kooijmans Chair at the University of Leiden. During the first half of 2016 when the Netherlands held the Presidency of the Council of the EU, Mr. Koenders served as the Minister of Foreign Affairs until 2017 before which he was the Under-Secretary-General of the United Nations and headed the UN peacekeeping mission in Ivory Coast as the UNSG Special Representative. Mr. Koenders has previously held numerous positions, including being the Dutch Minister for Development Cooperation from 2007 to 2010 (5 billion euros budget), Deputy Chairman of the Netherlands Atlantic Association, Member of the Supervisory Council of the Institute for Multiparty Democracy, President of the NATO Parliamentary Assembly, Member of the French-Dutch Cooperation Council, Founder of the Parliamentary Network on the World Bank and IMF and served the Board of the International Crisis Group and was Commissioner of the International Commission of Missing Persons. Mr. Koenders studied Political and Social Sciences, International Economics and African Studies at the Free University of Amsterdam, the University of Amsterdam and the Johns Hopkins University SAIS in Washington, DC.