1st HAGUE-BRUSSELS FORUM

"Women, Life and Freedom: Making Sense of the Protests in Iran"

22 November 2022

Wijnhaven Campus, Leiden University, The Hague

Lecture Hall 2.02

This lecture is part of the Jean Monnet Chair on the European Union's Role in Security and Global Affairs (EURISGA), co-funded by the European Union under grant agreement number 101085789.

Programme

16.15 – 16.45	Welcome and Introduction by Professor Joachim A. Koops Jean Monnet Chair on the European Union's Role in Security and Global Affairs (EURISGA) and Professor of Security Studies, Institute of Security and Global Affairs
16.45 – 18.30	Expert Forum Roundtable: "Women, Life and Freedom: Making Sense of the Protests in Iran" Moderated by Professor Tahir Abbas, ISGA, Leiden Univeristy Panelists: Dr. Hamidreza Azizi (Senior Iran Analyst at the Brussels-based International Crisis Group) Dr Pejman Abdolmohammadi (Associate Professor in Middle Eastern Studies at the University of Trento – joind online) Dr. Vanessa Newby (Assistant Professor of International Relations at ISGA and an expert on Gender, Peace and Security) and Dr. Matthew Hoye (Associate Professor of Global Justice, ISGA)
18.30 – 19.15	Q&A with the audience
19.15 – 20.30	Light Reception

Registration

Attendance is free, but registration is required. Please send your request for attendance by 15 November 2022 to secretariaat.isga@fgga.leidenuniv.nl